What do you think of the Clothing that Kahn sells 50 cents on the dollar? Why he bought them in New York for 40 cents on the dollar. He can do that and make money out of it. Go and see Kahn's Clothing at Kahn's Clothing House.

C. H. Greer and Nellie B. Westfield were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at Dr. B. F. Marlett's last Sunday in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. Both of the contracting parties stand high in social circles.

We are sorry to learn that the fine flock of ool from the Norton mines at Centerville, Ky., which was sent to the World's Fair, has been broken and realized entirely unfit for exhibition, and still more sorry are we to learn that the entire Kentucky exhibit is very incomplete and badly arranged.

It is not generally known, but we venture the assertion that Dr. J. E. Parnell, of P. C. Garret and A. W. Howe do more gratuitous work for the development of Ohio than any other three men within its borders. Would that we had many such public-spirited men.

If you want to buy town property, sell your property, lay a farm, sell your land, or any kind of real estate, rent property, loan money, borrow money, go out of town, go into business, or if you want to buy or sell anything, advertise the fact in the Herald.

D. R. Godley and Ida E. Duff will be married at the bride's home near Shepherd Springs at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Miss Duff is the daughter of J. R. Duff, and is the recognized belle of the neighborhood in which she lives. Mr. Godley is a very promising young man, with more than ordinary talents. He is a successful farmer, farmer and stock dealer. After the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. A. R. Hyatt, the contracting parties, accompanied by their friends, will leave for Dr. C. Godley's, the father of the groom, who lives at Shepherd Springs, where a reception will be tendered them at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

The Herald has occasion in its last issue to reproach some young men for their conduct on the streets of Hartford on the Saturday night before, and in consequence asked "Where was the Town Marshall?" In answer, the Herald says he was at home with his family, not deeming it his duty to stay on the streets of a city where he is not paid anything for his services other than what he gets as commission on his collections. This being true, we think it would be an imposition on the Marshall to require him to stay on the streets of the city and not pay him for his services. The fact is, he should be paid a reasonable salary for his services and then be required to keep good order on the streets.
